FIVE EXTRAORDINARY PRESENTATIONS THAT KEEP MARK’S AUDIENCES COMING BACK UP, DOWN, OR SIDEWAYS: HOW TO SUCCEED WHEN TIMES ARE GOOD, BAD, OR IN BETWEEN

Discover practical ways to prepare for and deal with change - good, bad or otherwise - by focusing on the mindsets and methods that never change.

Predicting the future is easy; predicting it correctly is very hard. Since we can’t be certain of what the future holds, what should we always be doing to ensure our success regardless of what happens?

Originally created to help audiences through the aftermath of the economic downturn of 2008, this presentation contains strategies and tips extremely relevant to the COVID-19 crisis and any other unimaginable situations.

THIS PROGRAM:
△ Examines the mindsets and methods that enable us to succeed come what may
△ Teaches a practical way of preparing for and dealing with change
△ Helps listeners to focus on those things that should never change
△ Shows the audience how to make the most of up, down, and sideways situations
△ Improves company morale and inspires teams to push through challenging times
△ Advises what to do when coming out of a crisis.

“Can’t thank you enough for delivering such an energetic and tailored presentation! It was also very kind of you to share your personal journey with us. It truly spoke to the good that we do and the responsibilities that come with it. Thank you again, and I hope to have the opportunity to work with you in the future.”
— Eli Lilly and Company
THE INTENTION IMPERATIVE: THREE ESSENTIAL CHANGES THAT WILL MAKE YOU A SUCCESSFUL LEADER TODAY

Nobody ever got to the top of Mount Everest accidentally.

Summiting the highest peak in the world takes clarity and intention AND so does leading successfully.

Intentional Leadership = clarity (knowing clearly where you want to go) + intentionality (taking consistent action to get there). Clarity without consistent action is daydreaming. Consistent action without clarity is wasted time and effort.

Just as the tools of successful mountaineering have changed and improved over time, so have the requirements of intentional leadership. Based on 33 years of working with organizations globally, teaching leaders and observing powerful shifts, Mark has identified three essential areas of focus for leaders in the world:

YOUR AUDIENCE WILL BE TAUGHT:

▸ Inspiration: motivation to the power of purpose
▸ Culture: creating an engine that sustains vision and values while achieving desired results
▸ Emotion: designing and delivering positive emotions for customers and employees

"You were the superstar of the convention! As I told you at the conference and as the person that suggested you to the convention committee, you made me look good. I had so many people tell me that your presentation was outstanding and truly made the convention a success.”

— NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY MANAGERS
THE POTENTIAL PRINCIPLE: HOW THE BEST GET BETTER

How do you keep getting better if you are already among the best? This is a critical question for successful leaders and organizations. What happens when complacency, outdated thinking or weariness stunts performance? What do leaders do when growth stalls, or when their teams are working below their true potential?

In this presentation, Mark Sanborn provides the answer and teaches four powerful tools your audience can use to pursue their potential.

YOUR AUDIENCE WILL LEARN:
- Why you must pursue your potential and not settle for simply achieving your goals
- How to disrupt yourself before somebody else does
- Three ways to become laser-focused on doing things that produce the biggest results
- A powerful way to think that gives you a competitive advantage over others

“You rock!!!!! Thank you again for making this conference so special!” — TOYOTA
THE FRED FACTOR: HOW PASSION IN YOUR WORK AND LIFE CAN TURN THE ORDINARY INTO THE EXTRAORDINARY

In this inspiring presentation, Mark Sanborn shares four life-changing lessons he has learned from Fred, an extraordinary postal carrier. Based on his New York Times and international bestseller, The Fred Factor, Mark will teach how no one can be prevented from choosing to be exceptional.

As a result your audience will be able to transform the ordinary into the extraordinary and the mundane into the magnificent in their personal and professional lives.

YOUR AUDIENCE WILL DISCOVER HOW TO:

▸ Build better relationships with customers and colleagues that improve overall work performance
▸ Create new value for others without spending a dime
▸ Elevate the customer experience for everyone
▸ Stay motivated and engaged every day for maximum working life enjoyment

“Mark is a very thought-provoking and entertaining speaker. I have been a fan since reading The Fred Factor but I was absolutely blown away when he spoke for our organization recently. Being a student of Mark Sanborn has helped me become better in business and life!”
